

Takata Airbag Individual Restitution Fund (“IRF”)
And Takata Airbag Tort Compensation Trust Fund (“TATCTF”)
Notice of Deferral of IRF and/or TATCTF Claim (“Notice”)

INSTRUCTIONS

This Notice may be submitted to defer the Special Master/Trustee’s consideration of an IRF Claim, Trust Claim and/or POEM Claim under the IRF and/or the TATCTF for personal injury or wrongful death caused by the rupture or aggressive deployment of a Takata phase-stabilized ammonium nitrate (“PSAN”) airbag inflator (a “Takata Airbag Inflator Defect”). This Notice may be submitted and signed by the person injured by the Takata Airbag Inflator Defect, or by the Legal Representative or the lawyer who represents an injured person, the Legal Representative, or a Decedent. References to “you” or “your” in this form refer to the Claimant or the Legal Representative. All capitalized terms not defined in this Notice have the meanings in the Claim Forms and the FAQs posted on the Special Master/Trustee’s websites, www.TakataSpecialMaster.com and www.TakataAirbagInjuryTrust.com.

You may defer the consideration of your claim under the IRF and TATCTF for one year from the submission of your Notice of Claim or Claim Form, or for as long as a related claim is pending in the tort system, plus 90 days. If you filed a Notice of Claim and indicated in that form that you want to defer consideration of your claim, and you did not subsequently reactivate the claim process, you do not need to submit this form.

You may terminate the deferral of your claim and reactivate the claim process by providing written notice, either by mail or by email, to the Special Master/Trustee using the contact information below. Be sure to include the name of the injured person or Decedent in your Notice and in all correspondence with the Claims Administrator. Once you submit this Notice, no further action will take place with respect to your IRF, Trust, and/or POEM Claims until you notify the Claims Administrator in writing that you would like to reactivate and resume the claim process.

If you previously filed a Notice of Claim but not a Claim Form, once you reactivate the claim process, you must submit either a Personal Injury Claim Form or Wrongful Death Claim Form and supporting documentation. Detailed information regarding how to file a Claim Form, eligibility requirements and other important information can be found in the FAQs posted on the Special Master/Trustee’s websites noted above. Claim Forms are available on the Special Master/Trustee’s claim filing website, www.TakataInjuryClaimSubmission.com.
